Scoring three runs in the fifth inning of the game yesterday, and holding the Truckers scoreless, the Colts won the second game of the series at Broad Street Park.

Ramey and Hall were the opposing pitchers and the former had the Truckers eating out of his hand at all stages of the game.

In the fifth inning Ramey pitched a large measure responsible for the Colts' victory. He passed Newton and Schwitzer.

After the season several games will be played with independent teams Monday and Tuesday.

Today the Truckers and Colts will return to a regular day program and it will be the last appearance of Portsmouth here this season.

Monday morning the Colts will entertain for Petersburg, where a game will be played starting at 1:30 o'clock.
